

Levels of Play Offered By South Texas

It is the mission of South Texas Youth Soccer Association to foster the physical, mental and emotional growth and development of the youth of South Texas by offering an environment that makes soccer fun and instills a lifelong passion for the game in its players and their families.

To accomplish this goal, STYSA provides various levels of play designed to fulfill the needs of players age 4 through 19 of various skill levels.

Division IV - Recreational – Under-10 and younger players

Children learn the basics of soccer through positive, fun training sessions that include short demonstrations and lots of participation. The primary goal of this play level is fun and the opportunity to play. There is a requirement that coaches make every effort to play each player at least 50% of each game.

Division IV - Academy / Recreational Plus – Under-8 through Under-10 players

The Recreational Academy Program is designed to allow trainers to teach individual skills to Under-8, Under-9 and Under-10 players in a team training format. Clubs must be pre-approved through an application process to offer this level of play.

Division III - Recreational – Under-11 through Under-19

Designed for players who enjoy the sport for the social aspect as well as developing their skills, recreational teams in these age groups are formed through assignment of all interested participants to a team. There is a requirement that coaches make every effort to play each player at least 50% of each game.

Division II – Competitive – Under-11 through Under-19

This introductory level of competitive play is designed for those who enjoy the social aspect of the game and want to continue to develop their skills through better competition. There is a requirement that coaches make every effort to play each player at least 50% of each game.

Super II – Competitive – Under-11 through Under-19

Selection of players based on talent and ability is permitted and generally includes a pool of players from a broader spectrum. Teams participate in the Super II league within the District which requires more commitment with regard to travel and expense. There is a requirement that coaches make every effort to play each player at least 50% of each game.

Division I – Competitive – Under-11 through Under-19

Recognized as the highest level of play within the state, players may be selected from across the state based on their ability, skill and commitment to the sport including a more demanding practice and game schedule. There is no play time requirement at this level for U13-U19. U11-U12 coaches must make every effort to play each player at least 50% of each game.

*Levels of Competition within Division I***

- Division I (D1): this competition provides an opportunity for teams to play top teams within their own District (East and West). These competitions are managed by the Division I associations, WDDOA and EDDOA.
- State Classic League (SCL): this competition is designed to provide play between the top teams in each District (U14-U18). There is no play requirement at this level.
- Southern Region Premier League (SRPL): this is Region III's highest level of competition. SRPL includes the most competitive teams (U14-U18) in Region III and is comprised of two (2) sub-regions, Premier League East (PLE) and Premier League West (PLW). PLE includes teams from TN, AL, NC, SC, GA, FL while PLW includes teams from AR, LA, MS, OK, NT and, STX. South Texas teams qualify for PLW based on previous performances in the PLW as well as promotion and relegation from the State Classic League.

- National League: this is US Youth Soccer's highest level of competition in the U.S. Teams are promoted to National League based on their performance in their respective Regional Premier Leagues.

Teams of all levels play through their Member Association or a designated play group (Super II, Division I, State Classic, and Premier League) during the fall season and, in some play levels, have the opportunity to advance to post season play in the Fall or enter Spring Cup competitions.

The competitions offered by South Texas Youth Soccer Association and the levels of play eligible for each competition is:
